REFORM CRIMINAL JUSTICE
Time behind bars can turn bad decisions into ruined futures. The Trust has helped:
• Expand alternative-to-incarceration programs and family courts.
• Reduce arrests in schools through conflict-resolution programs and advocacy.
• Advocate for a bail system that doesn’t penalize the poor.

ADVANCE WOMEN’S RIGHTS
We’re dedicated to making life better for women by providing resources and advocating for their rights. We’ve helped:
• Win strong parental-leave laws and anti-sex-trafficking.
• Open the first Planned Parenthood clinics in Staten Island and Queens.
• Train formerly incarcerated women to become advocates for criminal justice reform and ensure their perspective is considered in policy changes.

HELP IMMIGRANTS
New York is a beacon for immigrants. We’ve helped:
• Provide legal assistance to those who want to work and go to school without fear of deportation.
• Strengthen immigrant-led organizations so they can help more people.
• Celebrate the contributions of our newest New Yorkers while countering hate crimes.

SPUR CIVIC ACTION
We work with groups that inspire more New Yorkers to vote, speak up, and volunteer. We’ve helped:
• Start and expand participatory budgeting in New York, giving residents a say in where public money is spent.
• Inspire disenfranchised New Yorkers to vote—starting with local elections.
• Bring Action Civics to high schools, giving students the tools to change their communities.

INCREASE ACCESS TO JUSTICE
New Yorkers need lawyers to help them fight eviction, get health benefits, and apply for temporary legal immigration status. By funding nonprofit legal service providers, The Trust has helped:
• Get health coverage and benefits for veterans.
• Keep New Yorkers in their homes and out of homeless shelters.
• Provide legal help for unaccompanied young immigrants fleeing danger abroad.

The New York Community Trust is a grantmaking foundation dedicated to improving the city and its suburbs. It connects individuals, families, foundations, and businesses with vital nonprofits working to make a healthy, equitable, and thriving community, today and tomorrow.
